

Vogeler Pleads Guilty As Spy For America

Asks Hungary Court For Mild Sentence

Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 18 (AP)—American businessman Robert A. Vogeler calmly told a People's court today he was a professional spy and asked for a "mild sentence."

Pleading guilty on all counts of the 38-year-old vice president of International Telephone and Telegraph company testified he had been instructed to obtain special information about radar, rockets, uranium and oil deposits and to contact experts on atomic energy and help them escape from Hungary.

He said a Dr. Edler, whom he identified as an Austrian atom expert, had been smuggled out of Austria, apparently with the help of the American office of director of intelligence (ODI) in Vienna.

Business As Usual
"I used my business activities only as cover for my espionage work," he testified.

These were the highlights of a court session at which three Hungarians, the last defendants in a trial, also pleaded guilty to sabotage and espionage. They were Edina Doherty, a hotel maid and telephone operator listed as "baroness"; Klemen Domokos, chief accountant for the Standard Electric Company, Hungarian subsidiary of I. T. & T.; and the Rev. Istvan Justh, a Roman Catholic priest.

Three other defendants pleaded guilty yesterday. They were Vogeler's British assistant, Edgar Sanders, and two Hungarians, Imre Geiger, director of the Hungarian company, and Zoltan Rado, a section chief of the Hungarian ministry of heavy trade.

Wife Suspects Torture
(In Vienna, Vogeler's Belgian-born wife said: "It is obvious to anyone who knew Bob at all that he has been drugged or subjected to some kind of torture to make him say all these things. I don't know whether the torture was mental or physical, but they have certainly done something underhanded during the last three months.")

(Similar expressions of disbelief in his confession came from U. S. State Department officials and his business associates. Col. Sothenes Behn, chairman of I. T. & T. in New York, said dates and alleged activities mentioned in the Vogeler confession were at variance with the known facts.)

Self-possessed and speaking without a show of emotion or strain from his incommunicado imprisonment since Nov. 18, Vogeler answered with a simple "yes" this question: "Were you a trained specialist intelligence officer of the United States Army?"

There were the major points in his testimony:
The stand company was only a cover organization of intelligence."

Most of the American businessmen in eastern Europe are specialists instructed to collect information which they have to turn over to the headquarters of army intelligence in the United States.

As an electrical and mechanical engineer trained at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, "espionage in the technical field is my specialty."

Lucas Says Acheson Stand On Hiss Is 'Great Mistake'

Chicago, Feb. 18 (AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) said today Secretary of State Acheson's stand on Alger Hiss was a "great mistake."

"I told President Truman I would not defend Acheson if the matter comes up on the Senate floor," the senator majority leader said.

Lucas, in an interview, referred to Acheson's news conference remark, "I will not turn my back on Alger Hiss."

"Acheson got emotional," Lucas said. "But I don't think it will become a campaign issue—not a big one anyway."

Hiss, former state department official, was convicted of perjury in denying he gave state department secrets to the former communist courier Whittaker Chambers.

Lucas, the Senate majority leader, said there is no truth to a charge by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that there are at least 57 card-carrying communists in the state department.

Lucas called McCarthy "the greatest headline hunter in the world" and said he "simply doesn't have the facts. Let him produce names."

Total Of 29 Dead In New York Train Wreck

Rockville Centre, N. Y., Feb. 18 (AP)—A Long Island railroad train jammed with a home-going theater crowd passed a red signal light last night and sliced into another passenger train, killing 29 persons.

One hundred and five were injured, many of them mangled and in critical condition.

Three hospitals sent out calls for blood plasma as supplies ran low. All but two of those who rode to death in the front cars of the two trains were men.

This was attributed to the fact that the cars were smokers.

(In another railroad accident near Gulfport, Miss., today, 17 persons were injured but there were no deaths. Twelve cars of the Louisville and Nashville railroad's Pan American left the tracks, apparently because of a broken rail.)

The Long Island collision occurred on a makeshift "gantry" or "frog" siding, put down during temporary repair work on the main roadbed of the commuter railroad.

Jacob Kiefer, 55, of Baldwin, N. Y., motorman of the east bound train that went through the stop signal, was charged with second degree manslaughter.

Nassau county District Attorney Frank A. Gulotta said Kiefer would be arraigned Monday morning in First District court at Mineola, N. Y. Gulotta said no criminal action was contemplated against the motorman of the other train.

Kiefer's 12-car train carrying about 800 persons home from an evening in Manhattan, plowed into the westbound train at 9:36 p.m. (CST).

Both the railroad and police said Kiefer went through a red light. Gulotta said tonight he had information that Kiefer took his train through two red signals before the crash.

The attorney said there was no defect in mechanical operation. For hours, police and wrecking crews toiled frantically through the twisted, blood-drenched wreckage. Acetylene torches bit at the crumpled mass of steel from which came screams of the injured, trapped inside.

The dead, dying and injured were piled five deep in the two forward cars of the train. The cars were sheared in half by the terrific impact.

One major consideration of the U. S. leaders is to avoid deliberately forcing the issue with Russia at this time on atomic energy or similar great questions. Their advisers feel that a western peace mission to Moscow, for example, would have a disastrous impact on an uneasy world if it failed, and they believe that at this time it would fail.

In general this adds up to following a narrow course between the dangers of a shooting war on one hand and appeasement on the other.

Persons intimately familiar with the views of the two men said today the most important of these conditions are to show steel-nerved steadiness in dealing with the Kremlin, to tighten economic, military and political cooperation of the western powers, and to get a kind of total cold war policy for the United States—which Acheson believes this nation now lacks.

Doctor Will Go On Trial For 'Mercy Death' Monday

Manchester, N. H., Feb. 18 (AP)—Did Dr. Hermann N. Sander commit murder by an "act of mercy"— hastening the death of a cancer-ridden patient?

The state of New Hampshire brings him to trial Monday on that charge and a jury of New Hampshire citizens must decide the answer—while a whole world waits.

International attention is focused on the 41-year-old country physician and on the state's indictment. That he willfully injected 40 cubic centimeters of air into the veins of

Mrs. Abbie Borroto, 49, "well knowing the said air injection to be sufficient to cause death."

County authorities have quoted the slender, mustached doctor as saying it was an act of mercy—that the woman's death was only a few hours away.

In his only public comment, Dr. Sander said: "I am not guilty of a legal or moral wrong. Ultimately my position will be vindicated."

The Euthanasia society of America is keenly interested in the trial. It believes "mercy killings" should be legalized.

From far off Rome came a different viewpoint. O'Observatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, cited the fifth commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," in condemning mercy slaying. It said: "The fact that the doctor by committing a mercy slaying changes his mission to an inhumane one of giving death."

There is the possibility, however, the euthanasia issue (mercy killing) might play a less prominent role if the physician does not take the stand.

The medical record of Mrs. Borroto's death last Dec. 4 contained the notation that air had been injected into her veins. But it gave the cause of death as cancer of the large bowel.

The maximum penalty for murder in New Hampshire is death by hanging. The jury can, however, recommend life imprisonment in returning a guilty verdict.

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Feb. 18 (AP)—Premier Marshal Tito tonight challenged the United States and the West to make good their promises of financial aid. He said Yugoslavia would "rather go barefooted" than sacrifice its principles of socialism in return for assistance.

In his first major speech this year, Tito addressed a crowd officially estimated at 50,000 in the Serbian town of Titovo Ulice.

Speaking of financial aid from the West, Tito said Yugoslavia had asked "for nothing of late but had only said they should give us what they promised. We are waiting for them to keep their promise, and we shall see whether they are serious or whether this is only a propaganda."

(Yugoslavia is now asking for about $200,000,000. This includes a $25,000,000 loan from the international bank plus about $11,000,000 from the U. S. Export-Import bank and the international monetary fund.)

Tito said Yugoslavia considers these loans "will be useful to them as well, and we shall not permit international reaction, while writing that we are praying for loans, to place a weapon in the hands of the Communists, which continues to say we are constantly praying to American capitalists for new dollars."

Washington, Feb. 18 (AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) promised today to give the Senate "detailed information" Monday to support his charge there are 57 card-carrying communists in the state department.

McCarthy declined at a news conference to say whether he will give names in the Senate speech.

The state department has said it knows of no communists on its rolls and has asked McCarthy to furnish the names he says he has. So far the senator has refused to do so.

"But I am not altering my charge in the slightest," McCarthy declared. "I can back up everything I have said."

McCarthy is just back from a trip to the west coast during which he made his accusations about state department communists in a series of speeches.

The Wisconsin senator has called on President Truman to revoke an order which the senator said prohibits the state department from disclosing information "which would help expose communists."

Washington, Feb. 18 (AP)—The government's multi-billion dollar farm price support program is being put on a hot spot by troublesome surpluses.

The Irish potato—which has cost Uncle Sam upward of $500,000,000 in five years of price supports—has done much to focus public attention on the vast program.

Farm leaders are fearful that the highly-publicized dumping of spuds and efforts to give away dried eggs and milk will result in consumer and taxpayer demands that the whole support program be trimmed sharply. These leaders say that without an adequate support program farmers would suffer a depression which would engulf the nation.

Nevertheless, farm spokesmen agree that the potato surplus spectacle is one of the public will not long tolerate. Evidence of this is shown in current congressional efforts to tighten farm legislation so that new surpluses on potato production may be a magistrate, pleaded guilty and fined a fine of $10 and costs.

The potato issue hits the public's pocketbook in two ways. It takes tax dollars to buy up and dump unwanted surpluses. In doing this, it holds consumer prices higher than their natural levels.

The big thing that worries farm leaders in and out of the government is the very strong possibility that there will be additional surplus developments that will stir up overwhelming public resentment against the farm program.

In the first place, it is possible that another surplus of potatoes may be grown this year. In fact, the government already is buying early-grown 1950 crop spuds to carry out price guarantees. Even if congress passes rigid control legislation to cover this year's crop, it is doubtful that much could be done because of the lateness of the date.

Second, the government has accumulated more than $100,000,000 worth of surplus eggs and dried milk, which it is trying to give away for relief use; and about $50,000,000 worth of butter. Even larger purchases of dairy products may be necessary this year.

Report Miners Grimly Defy Work Command

Blizzard Hits North Central Part Of U. S.

By The Associated Press
A cold wave and blizzards knifed across the north central part of the country Saturday, but clear skies cheered thousands of flood refugees in the South.

Another mass of cold air harrassed the southeast, bringing freezing temperatures to parts of northern Florida.

That area had its coldest weather of the winter, with Fort Clark near Gainesville, taking state honors for the chilliest reading with a low of 21. Truck crops were reported damaged.

citrus fruits apparently escaped injury. In southern Florida, a good breeze kept the cold air from settling in low spots, but spotty damage to bean and corn fields around Lake Okeechobee was reported. Miami had a low of 47.

As the cold wave whistled into Montana and the Dakotas, temperatures plummeted 20 to 35 degrees. Icy winds kicked up local blizzard conditions in the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Much colder weather was forecast for most of the midwest as the cold air spread south and eastward. Wisconsin and upper Michigan braced for an expected cold wave.

The mercury skidded to 13 below zero in Minot, N. D. Devils Lake, N. D., had -10; Moberg, S. D., -4; Bemidji, Minn., -3, and Glasgow, Mont., -5.

Waning winter still had plenty of ammunition up north. The temperature never got above -25 Friday at Fort Norman, District of Mackenzie, and dropped to -36 during the night.

Suffering mounted in the South, despite clear skies. Crests of overloaded tributaries of the Mississippi continued to rise from earlier rains and backwaters flooded more farmland.

Hardest hit are Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas. Some 35,000 persons are homeless in these states and Missouri and Kentucky and the number is expected to grow.

In Louisiana and Mississippi, where 8,000 already are homeless, floodwaters are expected to rise at least until March 1. There were few indications backwaters would recede until late March.

It said the conspiracy reached into the political directorate of the Red army, the Leningrad municipal administration, and the Soviet ministry of state security.

According to Der Abend, the ultimate goal was to set up a new republic of the great Russias with its capital at Leningrad.

Some Won't Decide Until Monday

Pittsburgh, Feb. 18 (AP)—Reports from the nation's sprawling soft coal fields tonight show John L. Lewis' diggers grimly defying his new stop strike command.

John D. Battle, executive director of the National Coal Association, declared: "It's the damndest mess I ever saw."

"In some areas the locals aren't even going to meet until Monday."

Five of Lewis' United Mine Workers locals in western Pennsylvania officially rejected his order.

Spearinghead the "no contract no work" drive was the union's biggest local, the 2450-man Robena unit at Masontown, Pa.

Battle said mine operators from five states are telephoning his Washington office to say their employees won't be on the job Monday.

He declared the word came from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and southern West Virginia.

Rank and file members said they will not dig coal until they get a contract.

Robena frequently sets pace
Robena's action frequently has set the pace for the rest of western Pennsylvania's 36,000 striking soft coal diggers.

About 1,000 miners attended the Robena local's session in Masontown high school.

An official said: "The men that want to work stand up."

Only two men stood. The miners then silently left the place.

Other Pennsylvania locals which rejected Lewis' second work order within a week are at Liberty in the Pittsburgh area, at Westland near Washington, and the Ehrenfeld and Colver units near Johnstown.

The five locals, including Robena, have a combined membership of 4,250 members. Other locals throughout the country are expected to vote tomorrow. More than 370,000 miners are on strike.

Although field reports indicated continued rebellion against Lewis' back-to-work edict, the head of President Truman's coal fact-finding board said he had assured Mr. Truman "a good many miners are going back to work Monday."

In the field the only reports of expected work returns came from UMW leaders in Alabama and a very few operator sources.

Tom Crawford, acting president of UMW District No. 20 at Birmingham, Ala., said the general opinion among union men is that the miners will "go along" with Lewis.

U. S. Farm Bureau Gets Hard Lashing From Sec. Brannan

Des Moines, Feb. 18 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan gave the American Farm Bureau in general and its president, Allan B. Kline in particular, a bitter lashing today.

His remarks were made in the presence of Kline and more than 4,000 persons attending the 12th annual National Farm Institute. Kline had just finished a mild, by comparison, address in opposition to Brannan's farm plan.

At one of two points where Brannan was both applauded and booed, the secretary addressed himself to "the hecklers" and said: "I sat quietly while my opponent made a considerable light of our farm program. It's an old American custom of hearing a guy out."

In his address Brannan accused Kline of intentionally giving out misinformation about the Brannan plan.

NEED ACTION ON EDUCATION

We've had another warning from Earl J. McGrath, U. S. commissioner of education, that our education is in a critical state and getting no better.

With school population way up and still climbing, the nation has about 25 per cent less elementary school teachers than it did in 1941. High schools are somewhat better off but are treading on thin ice, many teachers barely meeting professional standards.

The Office of Education and the National Education Association agree that to replace dilapidated, obsolete school buildings and add the new ones needed to accommodate rising enrollments during the next decade will take about $10,000,000,000.

There are other problems, but these go to the heart of the crisis.

Congress has been kicking the aid to education issue around for some time now. And most of the proposals it has considered deal only with school operating expense and teachers' salaries. Very few attempt to grapple with the mounting backlog of vital school construction.

Election year or not, the lawmakers should plunge into this matter promptly. The nation's children can't await their pleasure. They're growing up and they'll advance toward maturity without an adequate education—in millions of cases—unless Congress does something about it.

Nation's Only Split State Seeks 4-Mile-Long Bridge

By JACK HARR
NEA Staff Correspondent

Mackinaw City, Mich. —(NEA)—America's only split state—Michigan—is trying hard to weld together its two peninsulas with a span of steel.

The proposed bridge over the historic Straits of Mackinac would be an engineers' delight, since it calls for the longest single suspension span in the world, 4600 feet. It would exceed the Golden Gate span, now the biggest, by 400 feet.

Michigan residents have long been nettled by the four-mile-wide straits that bisect their state. As early as 1820 agitation for a bridge began, but in 1923 a ferry system was inaugurated.

The automobile age, however, has out-distanced the chugging ferry boats. Traffic across the straits has doubled every decade, reaching an all-time high of 552,400 cars last year.

At one time during the deer-hunting season this winter, a line of car-stretched eight miles out of Mackinaw City waiting for the ferry boats to catch up with the demand.

The most eloquent group backing the plan is the Mackinac Bridge Citizens' Committee, composed of prominent men from Michigan's leading cities. They claim that the bridge could be built for $50,000,000, half to be obtained from the Federal government and the rest to come through issuance of state bonds. Tolls would be used to retire the bonds.

Experts are divided over the feasibility of the structure. Next to the length, the main problem is anchoring the gigantic piers. Some geologists claim that the rock 180 feet below the surface of the straits is not solid enough and others say it is not. Engineers may have the answer in their new techniques of distributing the weight of the supporting piers, reducing it from 20 tons per square foot to eight. Other critics say that the bridge would be a prey to the elements—snow, ice and high winds. Snow might be eliminated by installing an iron grill roadbed that would allow the flakes to fall harmlessly through. It is expected that ice pressure and winds can be met with new and better engineering methods.

The Straits of Mackinac link Lakes Michigan and Huron and are only 40 miles from the entrance to Lake Superior. A final engineering problem is that of preserving the waterway for the vital commerce that flows through it. That necessitates the 4600-foot span and also the weight of the supporting piers, calls for the bridge to be 150 feet high.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Glandular Fever Victim Should Be Carefully Watched

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Infectious mononucleosis, or glandular fever as it is sometimes called, seems to be getting more common. It is probably one of the virus diseases, and like so many of them its symptoms are variable and its course not alike for all people.

The symptoms may develop either suddenly or gradually. As a rule they start with a general feeling of distress, loss of appetite and vague pains here and there. Some fever is usual but it is not often high. Nausea, vomiting and a little pain in the abdomen are common. Symptoms occur too in the nervous system. Enlargement of the lymph glands in the neck and other parts of the body are frequent; it is this which gave it the name, glandular fever.

It is the blood, however, which shows the changes which make the diagnosis. The number of white cells in the blood is increased. When the blood is smeared on a glass slide, stained and examined under the microscope, it will show a peculiar type of cell which was formerly called a "monocyte," and which is responsible for the "mononucleosis" part of the name.

Except for these cells and a complicated special test of the blood called the heterophile anti-body test, the symptoms of infectious many other conditions. For this mononucleosis is similar to a great reason the diagnosis is often long delayed and sometimes not made at all.

Youngster's Nemesis

Infectious mononucleosis is particularly common in young people. It occurred frequently in military life. In most cases a complete recovery occurs after a few weeks. In some, however, fever and a run-down feeling last for months. Now occasional serious complications are reported. Fortunately, this is the exception.

There has not been any particularly good treatment for infectious mononucleosis. Recently it has been reported that one or more of the newer antibiotics may prove helpful but this is by no means certain as yet. This disease can become more severe and more widespread as time goes on. Possibilities of this sort are always present and make it advisable to watch and study infectious mononucleosis carefully.

"Nothing Shortens Life More Than Living"

By Hal Boyle

New York —(P)—Anybody got a used town for sale—cheap?

Burl Ives, the big, bearded ballad singer, is in the market for a second-hand small town, in good condition, if it has a mountain or two around it and the price is right.

He'd like it for a purpose—to see if he can build a community where Americans can have some real down-to-earth fun again.

"People don't have real fun anymore—not honest-to-God fun," complained "the wayfarin' stranger," as he sat in slippers and a comfortable over-stuffed chair in the hotel plaza.

"I'd like to build a place where they could go and have fun, and do the things they want—a creative place."

Liquid Form Lingers Long

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

A new version of sachet powder is a creamy liquid sachet meant only for skin application.

Because liquid sachet has a very slow rate of diffusion and evaporation, it's particularly recommended by the makers to women who think perfume does not last long enough on their skins.

Liquid sachet is simply a different perfume medium. It's used in exactly the same way that perfume is used: on the pulse points. Try smoothing it inside wrists, at the temples, at the side of the neck, even behind the knees, wherever the heat of the body tends to bring out fragrance.

This girl smooths on a new liquid skin sachet for long-lasting scent.

Women with sensitive skin will find liquid sachet soothing. It's not greasy and can't stain garments with which it comes in contact.

If you use powdered sachet to perfume lingerie and hankies in dresser drawers, it is wise to use a liquid sachet of the same scent on the skin to avoid a clash of fragrance.

To prepare a delicious sour cream dressing for slaw add a teaspoon of salt and one of sugar, a dash of freshly-ground pepper, a tablespoon of lemon juice and two tablespoons of vinegar to a cup of thick sour cream. Mix thoroughly and allow to stand in the refrigerator for a while to blend flavors.

Spring Hats Are Brimful Of Charm

Bigger Bonnets Take on Tricky, Double-Duty Meanings

Spring hats offer the battery of larger brims and unfussy styling and the charm of ingenious tricks of design and trim. Checked gingham bambino bonnet with shirred brim (upper left) has a detachable wreath of chartreuse straw. Peanuts, dangling from a sequin band, trim the natural straw bonnet (upper right). A red velvet forehead band decorated with pearl-encrusted medallion anchors the romanesque snood of Tuscan straw (lower right). Natural straw shapes the new 'coolie' hat silhouette (lower left).

HAPPY SUPAIS

THE SUPAIS get up with the sun, but they never hurry. Their days offer hunting, riding, working in the fields and swimming in the cool waters of the Havasu. Apaches drove the peace-loving Supai Indians into the mountain fastnesses of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, north of Ash-fork, Ariz., about the time of the American Revolution. Since then the Supais have lived between towering walls of the canyon in bucolic solitude. Two-way radio, piano and calico dresses are the only gifts they have accepted from the out-side civilization. Few outsiders visit the Supai reservation.

Using the same method their tribe has employed for centuries, Supai Indian women grind corn and braid baskets in the sun.

State UMW Chief Uncertain Of Men

The coal diggers yesterday were ordered for a second time to resume coal production under a federal court back-to-work writ. The instructions came from their nation-wide chief, John L. Lewis.

New York Stock Market

BY WILLIAM D. HORGAN
New York, Feb. 18—(P)—Railroad issues took over leadership of a rising stock market today for the second day running.

Gains were fractional for the most part but well spread through major groups.

Heavy trading accompanied the rise, with turnover for the two-hour session in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 shares.

Yesterday railroad stocks sparked one of the largest overall market gains of the year. Demand was based largely on hopes for quick settlement of the coal strike.

Buying persisted today despite the latest word that negotiations for a new coal contract had made little if any progress. A bit higher were American Airlines, United Airlines and Eastern Air, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Southern Railway and Baltimore & Ohio. Corporate Bonds moved narrowly.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Feb. 18—(P)—Hogs, cattle and sheep were quoted nominally steady today. Hogs sold within a $15.50 to $17.65 range.

Hog prices moved higher during the early part of this week as receipts were cut down by icy roads, but a good part of the upturn was lost in the closing sessions. Strong wholesale pork markets helped the live trade, pork loins gaining $4.50 to $5.00.

Barrows and gilts weighing more than 220 pounds closed the week steady to 25 cents higher. Lighter weights ended 25 to 50 cents lower. These latter showed a further quality deterioration.

Cattle trading held little interest this week, price trends following the usual seasonal pattern. Better while common type offerings advanced grades of steers and heifers slumped. Cows and bulls gained.

Good to choice lambs ended the week strong to 25 cents higher.

January Coal Production In State Halved

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18—(P)—Illinois coal production in January dropped almost at just over half the rate of the corresponding month in 1949, the State Mines and Minerals Department said today.

Eighty reporting shipping mines dug 2,951,554 tons of coal, compared with the 5,533,720 produced in January a year ago. Most United Mine Workers, who account for nearly 80 per cent of the state's output, were working three days a week last month and stayed away from the pits altogether for one week.

Blueboys Tromp Iowa Wesleyan 83-54; I.S.D. Beats Missouri

Illinois College Blueboys had little trouble in downing the Iowa Wesleyan Tigers last night 83 to 54. After Barney Vilk drove in for his two-pointer, IC was never headed. Although both teams were cold at the start, it didn't take the Hill-toppers long to show their superiority over the visitors. With Shouse, Gross, Grove, and Vilk hitting the basket consistently, the Blueboys were too much for Iowa to handle. Getting off to a slow start, I. C. held on 8 to 5 lead in the first five minutes. Then Grove and Vilk sped the quintet to a 25 to 8 margin mid-

Probers Arrest Woman Posing As Registered Nurse

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—Investigators for the Illinois Department of Registration and Education said today they had arrested a woman who was posing as a registered nurse at St. Mary's hospital in East St. Louis. The woman, who refused to disclose her identity, was held in the St. Clair county jail at Belleville on a charge of violating Illinois Nursing Act. She was held on $1,000 bond. The arrest was made by Walter C. Moody of Springfield and Gus Heldeman of Germantown, Ill., investigators for the department. They said the woman was working under a nursing certificate granted to a Chicago registered nurse. State Attorney Richard Carter of St. Clair county said the woman told him she had worked in several hospitals in Illinois and other states under the certificate. The arrest was part of a current drive by the department and the Illinois Nurses Association to bar fraudulent practitioners from performing the duties of a registered nurse. One-fifth of the traffic accidents in the U. S. in 1947 involved children.

Illinois Wallops Michigan 70-60; Osterkorn Gets 28

The win, Illinois' fifth in nine conference games, kept the Illini in fourth place. It was Michigan's sixth loss in nine games. Michigan shot a 42.1 average from the field, compared with 36.4 for Illinois, and was ahead several times.

In the curtain raiser last night, ISD swamped Missouri to the tune of 64 to 33. The Missouri cagers coached regularly for the first season was made up of green material, so in the face of this defeat is actually not as bad as the score indicates. ISD used their entire squad in subduing the boys from the south in which all participated in the scoring. Cecil again led the scoring for the Westenders with 17 marks while Lee of Missouri passed his team with 10 points. Hood reentered the Illinois lineup after missing several games, and showed that he lost none of his polish on the floor. His absence was due to a knee injury sustained in football this fall.

Phillies Will Be Most Colorful Squad In League

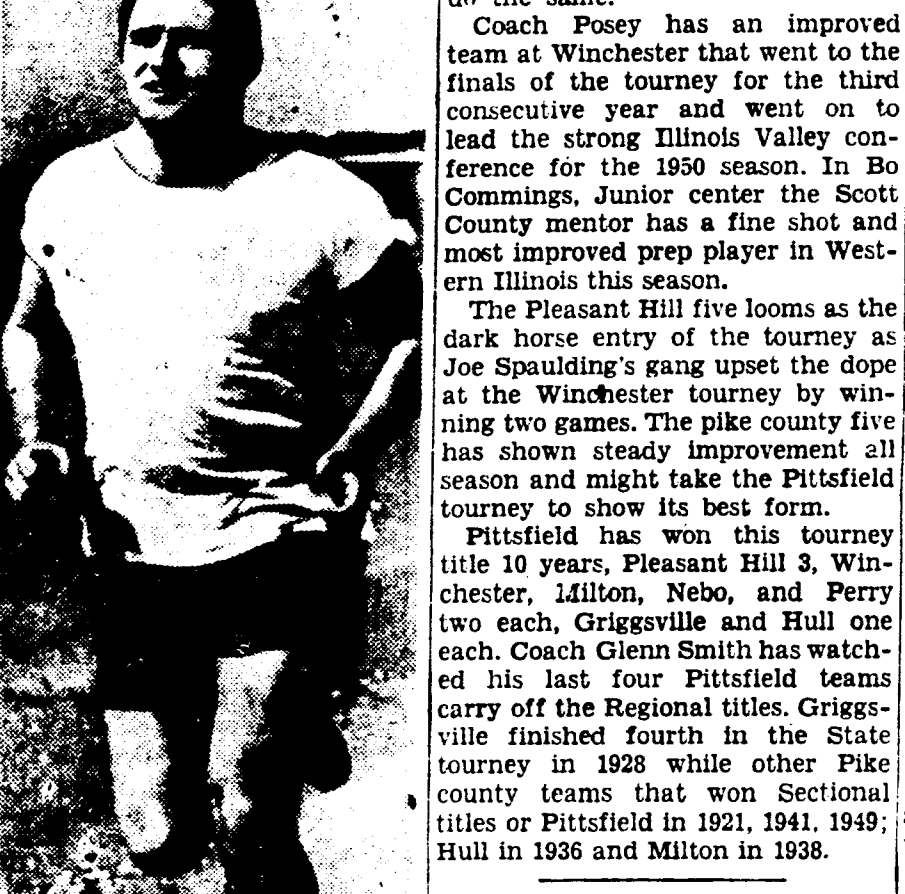

Philadelphia, Feb. 18.—(P)—The Philadelphia Phillies may not be the best baseball team in the National League next season, but they'll surely be the most colorful—at least at home. Presenting the latest word in spring style for baseball players, Owner Bob Carpenter announced these fashion designs for 1950: Prominent vertical red stripes on white flannel. Red sleeves and stockings. And as the very last word, red belts. What's left over will be white. On the road, though, the Phillies will be strictly "old look." Their uniforms will be a simple pearl gray without the crimson stripes, but with prominent red sleeves and socks. All of the Phils' 13 farm clubs will be attired in the same style.

Pittsfield Regional Boasts Three, Strong Entries, No Favorite

Pittsfield—(Special)—The Pittsfield Regional tournament will get underway February 27 with the host club meeting Nebo in the initial test and Griggsville facing the Barry five in the other game of the first evening. Second night action finds the Winchester club of E. W. Posey, Illinois Valley conference, meeting a stubborn Pleasant Hill team that has showed plenty of improvement this season. Art Bolton's Milton Mustangs will play Pearl in the other game that night.

Jack Burke, Jr., Takes Lead In Rio Grande Valley Golf

Harlingen, Tex., Feb. 18.—(P)—Young Jack Burke, Jr., of White Plains, N.Y., son of one of Texas' famed professional golfers, raced in with a five-under-par 66 today to grab the lead at the three-quarter mark in the $10,000 Rio Grande Valley Open. Burke brought his total for 54 holes to 199—14 strokes under par—to hold a lead of one stroke going into tomorrow's final 18 holes. In the second place were Fred Haas, Jr. of New Orleans, and Dave Hartman, Del., golf's thin men, and Big Skip Alexander, the blaster from Knoxville, Tenn. Haas and Douglas laid down 66's today while Alexander had a 69 as each brought his 54-hole total to 200. Alexander was the leader at the halfway mark with 131. The 6,095-yard Harlingen Municipal course was given another par-busting rampage.

Millikin Tops No. Central 72-63

Naperville, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—League-leading James Millikin University won its eighth college conference of Illinois basketball victory Saturday night by downing North Central College, 72 to 63. Scott Steagall pumped in 36 points for Millikin. John Berger, North Central captain, had 22. Millikin led 30-29 at halftime.

Lake Forest Beats Augustana 76-54

Lake Forest, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—Lake Forest defeated Augustana of Rock Island 76-54 Saturday night in a college conference of Illinois game. Lake Forest now has won five and lost four. Augustana has lost four of seven. Bob Joer led Lake Forest with 23 points. Jim Scott topped Augustana with 16.

Clark Shaughnessy Fired As Coach Of Los Angeles Rams

Los Angeles, Feb. 18.—(P)—Clark Shaughnessy was removed as head football coach of the Los Angeles Rams professional team today. The language in statements by the veteran coach and the owners didn't use the word "fired" but the effect was the same. Shaughnessy said Owner Dan Reeves told him yesterday that the Rams had decided to terminate his contract. Reeves first announced today that Shaughnessy had resigned but in a later statement said "we felt it necessary to terminate his contract" after "internal friction" had developed.

Line Coach Joe Stydahar was elevated to the head coaching post in the fast turn of events. He is the fourth Rams coach since the organization moved here in 1946. Shaughnessy, in the top spot for two seasons, was bitter as he posed a picture and arranged with his attorneys to examine his contract which had given three years to run. He said he had given Stydahar his first coaching job but he told a newsman: "When Stydahar gets through coaching the Rams I can take any high school team in the country and beat them."

Arenzville Graders Conquer Rushville In Regional Finals

Vermont, Ill.—The Arenzville grade school cagers downed the Rushville crew 37 to 14 last night to win the State Regional Tourney and advance to the sectionals. The Arenzville squad were in complete command of the game all the way holding Rushville scoreless in the first quarter. J. Coats of Arenzville was the evening's highest scorer garnering 14 points on 7 field goals for the victors. Palmer was high for the losers, having 5 tallies.

I.S.B. Trounces Wisconsin 28-8

The I.S.B. basketball team trounced the Wisconsin school for the visually handicapped by a score of 28-8 in a game played Friday night at the east side gymnasium. The badger squad definitely missed their tall center. Mulet, who was their main cog for the past two seasons. The visitors also missed many shots that barely rolled off the rim. However, their main fault was made in playing a zone defense throughout the game. In the final frame the I.S.B. boys just dribbled behind the circle to stall for time. At halftime the warriors led 12-42. The second half was just about the same.

EUREKA WHIPS MCKENDREE 71 TO 50

Eureka, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—Forward Dick Broers scored 32 points Saturday night in pacing Eureka's victory to a 71-50 victory over McKendree in a pioneer conference basketball game. Eureka, with three wins and two defeats, is in second place in the conference behind Shurtliff, which has won four victories and one loss. Eureka led McKendree at halftime 32-24.

Host Quint Favored To Capture Honors; Winner To Virginia

Meredosia — (Special)—Gerald Jones' Meredosia Indians, with a 1-7 record up to now, are favored to capture high honors in their own district tournament which will be inaugurated Tuesday evening, Feb. 21. Champion of this six-team playoff tournament will move to the Virginia regional meet and play Ashland in the first round. Meredosia and Chapin, rated second, drew yes in the district and consequently do not have to play first-round games, rather moving directly into the semi-finals. Routt of Jacksonville, the number three entry, and Bluffs will lock horns in the first tournament duel at 7:15 p. m. Tuesday. Paul Stroud's Rocket quintet dropped a one-point decision to Bluffs in the Scott county gym two weeks ago and will be gunning for revenge in this one.

285 Small Schools Begin Elimination Play In Cage Race

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—Grueling elimination play that will wind up March 18 with crowning of the 1950 Illinois high school basketball champion begins Monday. Two hundred eighty-five small schools competing in 47 district tournaments get the ball rolling next week. One of the meets, at Leland, starts Monday, 24 more get going Tuesday and 13 on Wednesday. Thursday is kickoff date for nine tournaments having few entries. All finish on Friday. The district winners advance into 60 regional meets the week of Feb. 26, joining 433 larger contenders which open their title bids at that stage. Few of the district competitors usually stay around long enough to qualify for the 15 downstate sectionals set March 8-10 this year. Sectional titlists automatically gain berths alongside the Chicago public school champion in the 16 team state finals March 15-18 at Champaign. Last season, a bumper crop of six "Little Davids" made it to the sectionals, but none went beyond. Somanauk was the last district quintet to reach the state finals—back in 1945. Th. teams capturing regional prizes in 1949 were New Athens, New Boston, Potomac, Buckley, Chambersburg and Lincoln of East St. Louis. In 1948, only two teams managed the feat, and in 1947 just one.

Charles Anxious To Get In Same Ring With Louis

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 18.—(P)—Edward Charles is mighty hungry. The National Boxing Association's heavyweight champion made that clear today as he arrived from New York city to start final training for his Feb. 28 title fight here with Challenger Freddie Beshore. It wasn't so much his late train arrival delayed his breakfast by two hours, either. It's all that talk about a million dollar fight next summer with retired champion Joe Louis. While the Brown Bomber tells reporters he "isn't going to fight anyone"—that he is "retired," his own booking manager, Harry Mendel, has left the door open. Charles, speaking as though his victory over Beshore were already accomplished, told reporters as he stepped off the train: "Sure Joe's going to fight me. He's just waiting until the time is ripe to announce his comeback."

Illinois Defeats Gophers In Track

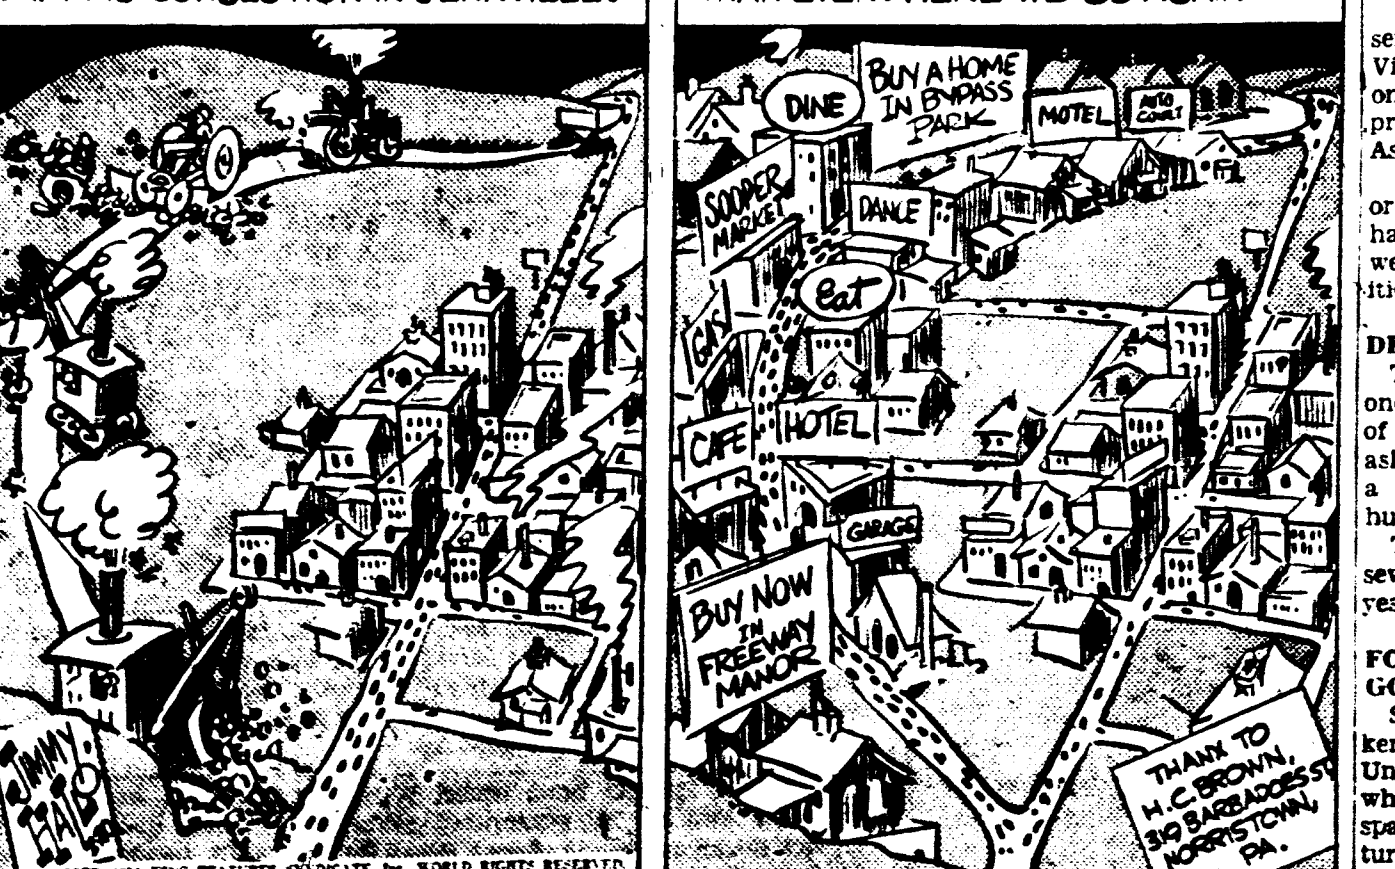

Minneapolis, Feb. 18.—(P)—Illinois defeated Minnesota, 683 to 451, in a Western conference indoor track meet today. The Illini captured five first places and tied for two more. Don Kilty, Minnesota captain, set a new Minnesota indoor record in winning the two mile in 9:26.4. The old record, 9:26.8 was set by Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin in 1947. The summary: Mile run—1. Lamb (I); 2. Down, (I); 3. Schimmel (M); Time 4:18.6. 60-yard dash—1. Rice (M); 2. Mason (M); 3. Ricketts (I); Time .06.4. 400-yard dash—1. Swank (I); 2. Gilbertson (I); 3. Priellip (M); Time .50.6. Shotput—1. Thompson (M); 2. Barnum (I); 3. Lindekugel (M). Distance 50 ft. 3 in. High jump—(four way tie)—Miska (M), Lunderberg (M), Decker (I), and Irons (I). Height 5 ft. 10 in. 70-yard high hurdles—1. Hinkle (I); 2. Nielsen (M); 3. Brass (M); Time .08.7. Two-mile run—1. Kilty (M); 2. Twomey (I); 3. Byers (M); Time 9:26.4. New Minnesota indoor record; old record 9:26.8 set by Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin in 1947. Pole Vault—(three way tie)—Laz (I), Cooper (M), and Calish (I). Height 13 ft.

$100,000 DELIVERY—All dressed up in a Pirate uniform, Paul Pettit demonstrates the delivery and grip which enabled him to catch six no-hit games for his high school team. The Pittsburgh club paid the 18-year-old Lomita, Calif., left-hander $100,000 to sign through an agent.

Conservation Men Hold Secret Meet

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—The state conservation department's 133 law enforcement officers have been in a secret meeting for the last two weeks, their chief, Sam Carey, said today. The session was held at the conservation training school near Lake Villa, Ill., where the men brushed up on game regulations, talked over practices used in nabbing violators. As for the secrecy, Carey said: "It thwarted potential law violators who might have run rampant had they known the investigators were absent from their communities."

DEATH ACCIDENTAL

Tamora, Ill., Feb. 18.—(P)—A coroner's jury today returned a verdict of accidental in the death of Pete Zeisko, 48-year-old farmer. He died of a shotgun wound inflicted on a hunt. The body was discovered about seven miles northwest of here late yesterday by the man's mother.

FORMER MONTANA GOVERNOR DIES

San Francisco, Feb. 18.—(P)—Tasler L. Oddie, former governor and United States senator from Nevada whose political career in that state spanned the first third of the century, died at his home here last night. He was 78.

TOP BILLING—A sister act, Alice, 22, and Marlene Bauer, 15, is the most magnetic attraction in women's golf. The Midland, Tex., misses matched par 72 to lead the qualifiers in the women's championship over the Palm Beach Golf Club course.

End of a Chapter

By Edwin Rutt Copyright 1950 by MEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Alice Plin, secretary to Muriel Halleck, who writes popular stories under the name of "Jo Palmer," has discovered that she is strangely attracted to Muriel's husband, Brent. Muriel's husband, Brent, is a successful writer, and in spite of Alice's feelings of jealousy, she goes to the train to meet Muriel, who has been coming to her literary agent in New York. Muriel has just revealed that she has had a conference with an executive of a Hollywood film company.

MURIEL HALLECK had a good reason for her excitement. If this man Alec Crowther had flown from Hollywood to see Muriel:

"You've got a Hollywood contract now and a fabulous salary?" Alice put her thoughts into a question.

"Right, my dear. And that's not all. Crowther's buying two series of mine for filming. So—" Muriel's strange eyes sparkled. "California here I come."

"But when?"

"Just as soon as I can close this place and—well, do something else that has to be done. But I want you to go out to Hollywood first. And find out some wonderful and wickedly-expensive place to live."

"But, Muriel," Alice's head spun. "you won't need a secretary if you're working in a studio."

"Oh, yes, I will. Look, dear, I wouldn't be setting foot in Hollywood if it weren't for my free-lance work. I won't drop that and I told Crowther so. The net of it is, I'm to have plenty of time for private writing. Especially to finish this novel."

"But—"

"Oh, my goodness!" Muriel exclaimed. "Here's a wonderful chance for both of us—I'll make it wonderful for you too. And all you can say is 'but.' What's the matter now?"

Alice hesitated. "I was just wondering—Oh, never mind it." Muriel's eyes were suddenly shrewd. "About Brent, eh? And Rick?"

"No," Alice admitted. "Listen, darling," Muriel sounded rather sharp. "Brent has his job. And much as I'd adore having Rick, it's impractical. Between the studio and my own stuff, I'll be bushed all the time. And I couldn't ask you to be a nursemaid."

"I wouldn't mind."

"No," said Muriel decisively. "you wouldn't. But I've made my plans. It's all settled. We've had everything out today. Brent's keeping his job in Providence. He's getting an apartment and a housekeeper who'll look after Rick. Everything's going to be just fine and dandy."

Alice said nothing. But she didn't like the thought of Rick, cooped up in a moderately large city after the space and freedom of Grosvenor Point. Why could not Brent have agreed to a transfer of the entire family? Had his job, in this short time, become so important and lucrative?

"R.I.C." Muriel said impatiently. "California's pretty nice. Is it so terribly hard to make up your mind?"

Suddenly it wasn't. For Alice saw a means of escape from a delicate and dangerous situation. A chance to break cleanly before things went any further. To put a continent between herself and an enigma of a man with whom it was both folly and disloyalty to be falling in love.

"I think," she said slowly, "that I'd like to go, Muriel. If you're sure you want me?"

"Sure, she says," Muriel gave a ringing laugh. "And me on a knees begging her. Oh, darling, I'm tickled silly!"

CHUCK WISNER studied the dress of his third highball and said: "If I weren't a trifle tight today, Toots, I wouldn't have the nerve to tell you. But you're a darn fool."

Alice blinked her blue eyes. She had met Chuck by accident this afternoon and listened to his siren's song anent drinks at Tolliver Inn. "That's pleasant," she said. "In just what way?"

"For going to California," Chuck told her.

"Well, now? That was decided Sunday. This is only Tuesday. How on earth did you know?"

He grinned. "Small town, big grapevine. But that's beside the point." His grin vanished. "You're needed here, my friend. Very badly."

She stared at him. She had never seen Chuck this serious before. "By whom, may I ask?"

"By," Chuck said, a little owlishly, "a very swell guy."

Alice laughed. "Are you kidding, Chuck? It's corny, but this is so sudden."

"Look," Chuck said, "I'm kidding nobody. What I'm doing is a partial John Alden. And if Brent ever finds out, he'll raise holy Ned. But I don't give a hoot. Because I think you ought to know it, if you're so dumb that you don't already."

Alice heard her voice, rising slightly. "I haven't the faintest notion what you're talking about."

He sighed. "Okay, I'll make like even you can understand. Brent Halleck—he drew a breath—"is absolutely and sincerely—and honestly—nuts about you."

Alice tried to ignore a delicious little thrill. It was one thing to know it, privately, intuitively. But—coming from this strangely serious Chuck, Brent's best friend, it was even better.

"You're crazy," she made herself say.

"Am I?" He fixed her with green pixie eyes. "I wish you could see your face. It's all lit up like a pin-ball machine."

"Oh, Chuck, don't be such a dope. But even if it were true, Brent has a perfectly sweet wife."

"Sweet wife? Oh, yeah. So I've heard. But are you in love with Brent, Alice?"

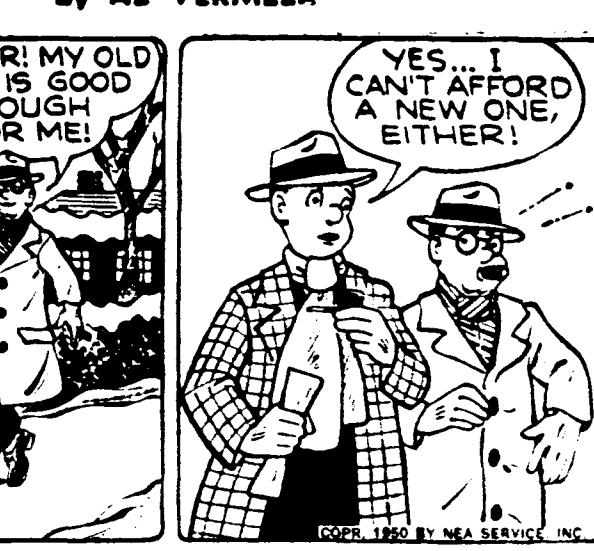

"Certainly not," Alice wished she wouldn't stammer on occasions like this.

The film was followed by a professional and instructive talk by Dr. William O'Reilly, also of Winchester, who stressed the importance of regular physical check-ups by bona fide medical men to detect the possible early stages of the disease.

This portion of the program was followed by another picture depicting the back-stage preparation of a large radio chain necessary before the broadcast of their programs.

At the close of the program, refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served by the refreshment committee.

Heart Ills Take Largest Life Toll Here Last Month

Heart disease claimed the lives of 17 individuals in Morgan county during the month of January, according to a report published in the monthly bulletin of the county health department. Next in order came apoplexy, six; nephritis, three; arteriosclerosis, three; accidents, two and cancer, two. R. E. May, chairman of the campaign to raise funds for the Morgan County Heart association, points to this report as proof of the importance of the drive.

Mr. May states that this was not only true here but also nationally. "This emphasizes the need for research and a local clinic."

Anyone purchasing a ticket for the benefit show at the Jacksonville high school Feb. 27 will thereby contribute to the heart fund. Post No. 279 of the American Legion is sponsoring the performance, which will start at 8:15 p.m. Only 900 tickets will be sold, in accordance with the seating capacity of the building.

Donations may also be mailed to the association at 205 Gibson Building, or may be placed in one of the 200 red plastic hearts which have been distributed throughout the county by Boy Scouts under the direction of D. M. McDermott. Mrs. Fletcher Blackburn is contacting many clubs, which are making group contributions.

There are 10 days left for the campaign, which closes the last day of February. The local goal is $5,000. Mrs. Blackburn joins with Mr. May in urging everyone to support the movement.

"It is true that the citizens of this community have given generously to the March of Dimes, the Community Chest and various other agencies for the relief of the distressed," Mr. May concludes. "But the Morgan county chapter of the American Heart association, a new agency, will provide still another facility for safeguarding health. Donations will be used in research and education to promote the well being of the citizens."

ARCADIA A.T.A.

QUEEN OF THE PROM

Miss Margaret Street of Chicago was the princess at Saturday night's "Fantasy of Frost" dance given by the MacMurray College junior class.

The decoration motif was a wintry fantasy of snowy glitter and silver foil. Behind George Johnson's orchestra revolved a tree made of three tiers of silver streamers, illuminated by blue lights. The effect was further enhanced by silver snowflakes which blew about the tree. A large figure of Jack Frost, from the south end of the hall, silver snow flakes also hung from the balcony which was draped with material treated with metallic glitter.

A huge snowflake provided background for the throne of the princess. Two little boys, Fred Busche and Sam Paton, dressed alike in dark suits, made an aisle to the throne with white satin ribbons. The honor line of 16 freshmen, in white gowns, carrying nosegays with blue satin streamers, took positions on either side of the aisle.

Miss Street was preceded to the throne by little Miss Ann Wilson who carried the princess's crown. Ann wore a long white organza dress. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson.

The princess was crowned in white satin and white marquisette. Her gown, as well as those of her attendants, was made with a satin bodice and a marquisette skirt laid over with a satin drape. Miss Street wore rhinestone accessories. She was escorted by Robert Scheller of Chicago, Illinois College student.

The princess's attendants, Miss Marilyn McGinnis of Appleton and Miss Marilyn Miles of Milwaukee, wore gowns of sapphire blue satin and white marquisette, identical in design to that of the princess. Miss McGinnis was escorted by John Carroll, Illinois College student from Ottawa, Ill., while Miss Miles's partner was Paul Meissner of Milwaukee, a student at the University of Wisconsin.

Also in the royal party were Miss Marion Veath of Chester, Ill., chairman of the dance, and Miss Margaret Leaverton of Granger, Iowa, president of the Junior class. Miss Veath and Miss Leaverton wore gowns of royal blue satin and white marquisette. Miss Veath was accompanied by Charles Young of Chester, student at the University of Arkansas; Miss Leaverton's escort was Leo Henegan of Jacksonville, who is studying at the University of Illinois.

RR Farm Agent To Talk At New Berlin Banquet

New Berlin—H. J. Gramlich of Chicago, general agricultural agent of the Chicago and Northwestern railway system, will speak on the topic, "The Picture Changes," at the second annual banquet of the New Berlin Community club, to be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the high school.

H. J. Gramlich

Mr. Gramlich has held his present position for eight years and during that time has appeared on rural and urban programs in many states, including the nine served by the railroad.

He previously served for 22 years as head of the department of animal husbandry of the University of Nebraska. In 1934-35 he served as special adviser on feeds for the AAA in Washington, D. C.

His practical presentation of the subject is always well received. He drives home his lesson by presenting basic facts alternated with appropriate anecdotes, and his sense of humor never fails to appeal.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale and may be purchased from any member of the New Berlin Community club. They may also be obtained by calling Russell King or Robert Pfeffer of this city. Those wishing to attend are advised to get their tickets early, as the supply is limited.
